Proposed NAD AY Honor Philosophy, Scope, and Purpose Evaluation Document

This document should be used by any individual, club, or conference who wishing to submit a proposed honor to the North American Division. Proposed Honors received without this Evaluation Document may be returned to submitter without being considered for Honor publication.

This is an evaluative tool & checksheet that provides:

- Evaluation
- Support
- Guidance
- a process for the honor submission process.

Initials

Evaluate Which of the following outcomes you anticipate a young person completing as a result of earning this honor (check all that apply) Evaluate honestly. No honor fulfills all of these outcomes.
— An increased desire to live a life of service to one's fellowman.
<ul> <li>A sense of accomplishment</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Growth (spiritually, cognitively, emotionally, and/or relationally)</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Foundational skills applicable for life and eternity</li> </ul>
Positive character development
— Patience
— Ingenuity
<ul> <li>Task completion through internalized self-discipline</li> </ul>
Keeping young people involved in church
— Preparation for leadership
— Environmental consciousness
Appreciation of God's creation
— Other:
 Evaluate All requirements uphold the fundamental beliefs of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.
Yes
No (STOP, do not submit. Revise.)
Evaluate
The requirements cover a moderate amount of material
The requirements are appropriate for Junior-Teen young people.

ALL accepted proposals for an AY Honor become the exclusive property of the NAD Youth Ministries Department. Such proposals may be altered or changed in any way deemed appropriate by the NAD Pathfinder Honors taskforce or Pathfinder advisory.

Evaluate The requirements cover a field of study larger than an activity or that may be a part of a meeti event, or experience. Explain Evaluate Requirements include a balance of theory and hands-on experience. Requirement #s that are theory:
Requirement #s that are hands-on:
List Requirements that are (see documents): • Tactile:
<ul> <li>Facilie:</li> <li>Visual/spatial</li> </ul>
Auditory
Kinesthetic     (the same requirement may work for multiple groups)
Evaluate (check all that apply)
Requirements can be met easily by the following audiences:
— Urban — Suburban
— Subulban — Rural
<ul> <li>Affluent (expensive supplies, rentals, trainers, locations, or transportation needed to complete)</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>— Non-affluent (free or nearly free to complete)</li> </ul>
— Multi-racial — Specific racial group:  Evaluate Does the proposed honor environmental and non-combative principles?
Explain:
Purpose/Philosophy – Write a concise statement that outlines the purpose of this honor and states a philosophy of how the proposed honor fulfills the PSP document requirements leadership capacity (See NAD Honors Submission Guidelines for details and specifics). Name of Leader #1 Email: Phone #:

Name of Leader #2 Email: Phone #:
Name of Leader #3 Email: Phone #:
 Action – Contact the NAD Honors Taskforce and request a Coach. Participate in meaningful dialogue with this coach regarding your Proposed honor.
 I have made meaningful contact with an NADHT Coach.
Submit –         All of the following are present in my digital submission. I have included them along with this Submission         Worksheet to         Glen Milam: glenmilam@myactv.net         Terry Dodge (chair): tdodge@misda.org         Mark O'Ffill (recording secretary): webmaster@pathfindersonline.org
Mark O Fini (recording secretary). Webmaster@pathindersonine.org
Confirm I have submitted all documentation prior to January 15. Note: Please read the Submission Guidelines document for a timeline and process